

Recording Lectures Agreement Form

Students with disabilities who are unable to take or read notes have the right to audio record class lectures for their personal study only*. Recording lectures is a reasonable accommodation for students whose documentation calls for this accommodation.

Policy for Recording Lectures

"Students must seek the permission of their instructor before using any audio recording devices to record lectures, discussions, etc. If such permission is granted, neither the resulting recordings nor any form of copies of transcripts of the recordings may be used for any other purpose than as a replacement for notes taken in class. Permission to make recordings will not be withheld if such recordings are reasonably necessary to accommodate a student's disability as defined by law. Students with disabilities who require this accommodation must sign the Recording Lectures Agreement Form before the start of the course and prior to recording."

Conditions of Agreement

Students that are eligible to record class lectures must agree to the following terms:

- Students will agree to abide by the Policy for Recording Lectures.
- Students will not copy or share audio recordings with anyone, except for a transcriber who may be required to type it if needed for the accommodation. Lectures recorded for educational purposes may not be shared with other people without the consent of the lecturer. Information contained in the recorded lecture is protected under federal copyright laws and may not be published or quoted without the consent of the lecturer and without giving proper identity and credit to the lecturer.
- At the conclusion of the course, the student will erase audio recordings from all the classes or return the recordings to the instructor, whichever the instructor prefers.

I have read and understand the above policy on recording lectures at Wilmington University, and I agree to abide by this policy with regards to any lectures I record. The Student Code of Conduct will cover any violations of this agreement.
