Instructions:
One of the areas that the Department of Education requires Financial Aid administrators to verify is your (or your parents') tax filing status. On your FAFSA you answered questions concerning your (or your parents') marital status. Your FAFSA or other documents submitted indicate that you (or your parents) are married, but according to your (or your parent) income tax return you have filed "Head of Household" or "Single". IRS Publication 17 states that a married person can only file income taxes as "Married Filing Jointly" or "Married Filing Separately".
A: UNMARRIED IN 2	021: 🗌 I wa	as not married to my	current spouse in	n 2021, but ma	rried when FAFSA wa	s completed
o If you checked this box, you must attach a copy of your marriage license or other proof of your marriage date to this form Submit a 2021 Tax Return Transcript for you and your spouse. Even though you did not file taxes as married during 2021, the FAFSA requires the income information to be completed based on your current marital status.
