Student Clubs & Organizations

www.wilmu.edu/StudentLife

American Criminal Justice Association

The Wilmington University Criminal Justice Association provides out-of-class learning experiences, networking opportunities, social interactions, and a sense of camaraderie among the Criminal Justice majors.

Jacob Andrews; 302.327.4891
Jacob.m.andrews@wilmu.edu

Booked Up in the College of Health Professions

The goal of Booked Up in the College of Health Professions is to bring together Health Professionals to convene and enjoy topic provided discussions through this book club. We will discuss a variety of topics through books, chapters of books, podcast episodes, videos, webinars, and other resources.

Lisa Drews; 302.356.2022
lisa.m.drews@wilmu.edu

Digital Film Making Club

The purpose of the Digital Film Making Club is to provide members with networking, education, career and portfolio development.

Timothy Day; 302.356.6871
timothy.c.day@wilmu.edu

Dover Ambassadors

The Dover Ambassadors assist with University events, provide campus tours, answer questions from the student perspective, and help with student services at the Dover site. Additionally, Ambassadors give back through participating in community service in the area.

Jonathan Mallory; 302.734.2495
jonathan.b.mallory@wilmu.edu

Esports

Wilmington University is launching its first-ever Esports team this fall and competing in League of Legends and Rocket League! For more information, please contact the Head Coach using the info below or email esports@wilmu.edu.

Christian Broderick
christian.g.broderick@wilmu.edu

Game Club

The purpose of the Game Club is to provide a place for Wilmington University students to try out a variety of old and new types of gaming entertainment.

Debra Wylie, Advisor; 302.342.8625
debra.l.wylie@wilmu.edu

Green Team

The Green Team is a volunteer group of students, staff and faculty striving to raise awareness on campus, at home and in the community. The Group is working to establish Sustainability programs that improve environmental quality, decrease waste, and conserve natural resources and energy. Higher education institutions bear a profound responsibility to increase the awareness, knowledge, skills and values needed to create a just and sustainable future.

Thomas Hurd, Advisor; 302.356.1180
thomas.w.hurd@wilmu.edu

Military/Veteran Student Organization (MVSO)

The purpose of the Military/Veteran Student Organization (MVSO) is to promote camaraderie and encourage networking amongst our Military and Veteran students through a non-political social organization.

James Webb, Advisor; 302.342.8669
james.s.webb@wilmu.edu

Multicultural Student Association

The mission of the Multicultural Student Association is to foster and enrich Wilmington University Students' awareness of diverse cultures. We will offer support and guidance to our members as well as actively participate in functions on and off campus.

Angelina Burns, Advisor; 302.356.6741
angelina.l.burns@wilmu.edu

Phi Theta Kappa Alumni Association

The Phi Theta Kappa Alumni Association is open to all transfer students who were inducted into the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society at their respective two-year institutions. The mission of the PTK Alumni Association is to continue the Phi Theta Kappa experience at WilmU through networking, professional development, and service.

Aaron Stafford; 302.356.6740
aaron.m.stafford@wilmu.edu

Ping Pong Club
The mission of the Ping Pong Club is to bring people together who share a love of table tennis. All students are welcome to join, regardless of experience.

Jim McCloskey; 302.356.6880
James.m.mccloskey@wilmu.edu

Society for Human Resource Management
The Wilmington University Student Chapter—Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) is responsible for providing students with an overview and opportunities in the field of human resource management.

Robin Weinstein, Advisor; 302.669.6605
robin.b.weinstein@wilmu.edu

Spectrum
Spectrum promotes awareness, acceptance, tolerance, and support of LGBTQIA+ students, staff and allies.

Thomas Hurd; 302.295.1180
thomas.w.hurd@wilmu.edu

Sports Management Club
The Wilmington University Sports Management Club is open to students interested in the sports management and business fields. The club helps students take advantage of sports management events and conferences in the area.

business@wilmu.edu

Student Athlete Advisory Committee
The functions of the SAAC organization are to emphasize academic opportunities and responsibilities of student-athletes in their college experience; encourage student-athletes to apply what is learned in athletics to their course of study and ultimately, to their career development; assist in the implementation of orientation programs for student-athletes; promote positive relationships between student-athletes and the staff and faculty of the University and the residents of the community; assist in the implementation of programs that will promote a positive image of intercollegiate athletics and the student-athlete.

Derek Buckley; 302.669.6612
derek.l.buckley@wilmu.edu

Student United Way
The Wilmington University Student United Way is a student-run branch of the United Way of Delaware. We are a group of student volunteers devoted to lending our time and talent for the benefit of our surrounding community. Through our efforts, we hope to encourage other students to become both active members of our club and volunteers within their own community. Ultimately, our goal is to inspire our members to continue giving and volunteering beyond their experiences at Wilmington University.

Patty Greene, Advisor; 302-356-6752
patty.t.greene@wilmu.edu, suw@wilmu.edu

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association (SGA) is the primary governing body of all students enrolled at the University. Through SGA, students have a voice in planning collegiate activities and performing community service on a regular basis. Meetings are typically held one Wednesday per month at 4pm in the Pratt Student Center.

Alice Miller, Advisor; 302.356.6966
alice.k.miller@wilmu.edu, sga@wilmu.edu

Student Legal Association

The purpose of the Student Legal Association is to build professional and personal networks for students with their instructors, advisors, and the legal community at-large; to foster personal and academic camaraderie among students; to educate the membership by means of guest speakers from the legal community; to inspire a sense of pride in the community through volunteer opportunities, to prepare members to join the legal community upon graduation with the knowledge and support necessary for success.

Nicole Ballenger, Advisor; 302.356.6765
Nicole.e.ballenger@wilmu.edu

WilmU Reads Book Club

The WilmU Reads Book Club was created to provide a space for students, faculty and staff to build community through participating in monthly book discussions and activities. Meetings are typically held during lunchtime and members are welcome to bring their lunch and chat about the club's latest book selection.

Jim McCloskey; 302.356.6880
James.m.mccloskey@wilmu.edu

WilmU Toastmasters Club

Toastmasters is a nonprofit educational organization that operates clubs worldwide for the purpose of helping members improve their communication, public speaking, and leadership skills. Meetings are usually held on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month in a hybrid format.

Dr. Adrienne Bey, Advisor; 302.295.1224
adrienne.m.bey@wilmu.edu

WilmU Toastmasters – Dover

Toastmasters is a member organization for the purpose of helping members improve their communication, public speaking, and leadership skills. Meetings are typically held on Saturday mornings at the Dover site.

Jonathan Mallory; 302.734.2495
jonathan.b.mallory@wilmu.edu

Wildcat Cheerleaders

The Wilmington University Wildcat Cheerleaders perform at basketball games, compete in local/national competitions and can be seen at many other campus and community events.

Ashley Mundy, Coach/Advisor; 302.356.6817
ashley.r.mundy@wilmu.edu

Young Professionals Association

The Young Professionals Association is open to all current students and young alumni (less than 5 years out). The YPA creates, promotes, and engages in opportunities that enhance leadership and networking skills while sharing the spirit of philanthropy and school pride. The YPA will foster these skills as students prepare for their roles as future alums.

Donna Hardy, Advisor; 302.295.1162
donna.j.hardy@wilmu.edu

Honor Societies

Behavioral Science Honor Society, Pi Gamma Mu

Pi Gamma Mu is an international honor society for eligible Behavioral Science, Psychology, and Organizational Dynamics students. The mission of Pi Gamma Mu is to encourage and promote excellence in the social sciences and to uphold the ideals of scholarship and service.

Dr. Johanna Bishop; 302.356.6863
Johanna.s.bishop@wilmu.edu

Business Honor Society, Sigma Beta Delta

Sigma Beta Delta is an international honor society for Business, Management, and Administration majors established in 1994 to honor students who have attained superior academic records in business programs in colleges with regional accreditation. This organization exists to encourage and recognize scholarship and accomplishment among business and management students and to promote aspirations toward personal and professional achievement.

A member since 2005, the Wilmington University chapter holds induction ceremonies twice a year to formally recognize the academic achievement of the top 20% of that year's business graduates. Inductees are presented with a certificate and official Sigma Beta Delta regalia acknowledging their achievement which is to be worn with their graduation attire at Commencement.

Dr. Mary Pat Braudis
Mary.p.braudis@wilmu.edu

Communication Honor Society, Lambda Pi Eta, Alpha Chi Sigma Chapter

Lambda Pi Eta was founded by the students of the Department of Communication at the University of Arkansas in 1985, and became the national honor society for outstanding students in communication in 1994. Today, more than 450 chapters can be found nationwide. Students in their junior or senior year are considered for this society based on high academic success and achievement in their studies for a bachelor's degree in communication. Membership is by invitation only, with induction in November of each academic year. New members are presented with a certificate, a Lambda Pi Eta label pin, and a red and white honor cord to be worn with academic attire at their commencement ceremony.

Dr. Janice Colvin 302.356.6786
Janice.k.colvin@wilmu.edu

Criminal Justice National Honor Society, Alpha Phi Sigma Eta Beta Chapter

The purpose of this organization will be to promote excellence within the Criminal Justice major. The goal is to prepare students to become scholarly practitioners in their chosen profession. Membership is limited to those students who are Criminal Justice majors. Undergraduate students must have obtained junior status, have a 3.4 cumulative GPA, with a 3.4 GPA in all Criminal Justice courses. Undergraduate students must have also completed 15 Criminal Justice credits at Wilmington University. Graduate students must have completed their degree with a 3.75 GPA.

Dr. James Warwick, 302.356.6863
James.p.warwick@wilmu.edu

Delta Alpha Pi, International Honor Society, Delta Alpha Pi, Gamma Alpha Chapter

Delta Alpha Pi is an international honor society that was established to distinguish students who have attained superior academic records while managing personal setbacks. The mission of Delta Alpha Pi is to recognize strength, achievement and pride in these students. DAPi also sponsors activities and service projects throughout the academic year.

Christyn Rudolf, 302.356.6937
Christyn.e.rudolf@wilmu.edu

Education International Honor Society, Kappa Delta Pi

The Wilmington University Chi Phi Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi is an International Honor Society in Education. The society elects those students to membership who exhibit high ideals in scholarship, high personal standards, and promise in teaching.

Dr. Thelma Hinds, 302.356.6983
Thelma.m.hinds@wilmu.edu

Epsilon Pi Tau Honor Society, Delta Lambda Chapter

Epsilon Pi Tau is an international honor society that encourages academic excellence of students in fields devoted to the general study of technology and the preparation of practitioners for the technology professions. It recognizes and provides services to students in degree and certificate programs in accredited higher education institutions offering associate through doctoral degree programs. It provides recognition of individuals for achievement and leadership, and is a medium for professional development. Membership in Epsilon Pi Tau is open to technology students and professionals with careers in technology. Students are considered for membership in this International Honorary Society because of their academic excellence. Only those individuals who have shown scholastic success are considered.

Dr. Cheryl Wilmore
Cheryl.k.wilmore@wilmu.edu

Human Services Honor Society, Tau Upsilon Alpha National Organization, Nu Chapter

Tau Upsilon Alpha (TUA) National Human Services Honor Society, Nu Chapter, is open to graduate students in the Administration of Human Services program. Students who have completed at least 24 credits, have a 3.5 GPA or higher, and are in the top 35% of their class are invited for membership. The purpose of TUA is to honor academic excellence; to foster lifelong learning, leadership, and development; and to promote excellence in service to humanity. TUA also sponsors a Service Society, which is open to any student who is interested in engaging in community service projects.

Dr. Allan Zaback, 302.327.4864
Allan.r.zaback@wilmu.edu

Legal Studies Honor Society, Lambda Epsilon Chi

Lambda Epsilon Chi (LEX) was established in 1994 to recognize those individuals who have demonstrated superior academic performance in an established program of paralegal/legal studies. In order to apply for induction into Lambda Epsilon Chi prospective students must: Complete two-thirds of their LES core courses (33 credits for bachelor; 18 credits for certificate); Achieve an overall GPA of 3.5 or higher in their LES courses; Submit an application; and write an essay(s) on an assigned topic and formal recommendation from the Legal Studies Advisory Board.

Nicole Ballenger, 302.356.6836
Nicole.e.ballenger@wilmu.edu

Liberal Studies National Honor Society, Alpha Sigma Lambda, Delta Chi Omega Chapter

Alpha Sigma Lambda is the largest adult nontraditional student honorary society in the United States, serving the adult student population for more than 60 years following its founding at Northwestern University in Chicago. This society recognizes the special achievement of select Liberal Studies bachelor's degree students in their junior or senior year who accomplish high academic excellence while maintaining commitments to family and career. Chapters can be found in both private and public colleges and universities across the county. Membership is by invitation only, with induction in November of each academic year. New members receive a certificate, an Alpha Sigma Lambda label pin, and a burgundy and gold honor cord to be worn with academic attire at their commencement ceremony.

Janice Colvin, 302.356.6728
Janice.k.colvin@wilmu.edu

Nursing International Honor Society, Omicron Gamma Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau

Sigma Theta Tau International (STTI) is a non-profit organization which recognizes superior achievement in nursing. In addition, STTI fosters high professional standards and the development of leadership qualities, encourages creative work, and strengthens commitment to the ideals and purposes of the profession. Omicron Gamma is the Wilmington University chapter of STTI. Membership is by invitation only. Induction occurs in the spring of each year.

Angie Steele-Tilton, 302.356.2021
Angela.b.steele-tilton@wilmu.edu

Psychology International Honor Society, Psi Chi

Psi Chi, the International Honor Society in Psychology, was established by charter at Yale University in 1929. The honor society now has over 700,000 members and is the largest student psychological association in the world. The mission of Psi Chi is to "encourage, stimulate, and maintain excellence in scholarship of the individual members in all fields, particularly in psychology, and to advance the science of psychology".

Dr. Kelly Cheeseman, 302.327.4844
kelly.a.cheeseman@wilmu.edu